

Canine Pre-Adoption Application

The Wallowa County Humane Society tries very hard to make the best possible match between your home and one of our pets. The Animal's welfare is our foremost consideration when it comes to our adoption policy. This process is designed to help us determine if this pet you are interested in adopting is the best compatible with you and your family lifestyle.

Please answer the following questions truthfully in order so that we can assist you in matching you with the best possible pet for you and/your family.
